

Drivadan wide span houses is built to withstand the extremes of climate in the Nordic countries and is one of the technically most advanced and adaptable glasshouse systems on the market. The wide span house is especially suitable for pot plant growers and as service building.

Our Technical Team is vastly experienced and able to offer a complete design and build service. Our services incorporate: heating, mobile benching, roller benching, irrigation, shading, climate control and automation solutions.

Technical Specification

- Standard width from 6.0 to 24.0m
- Lengths: according to requirements
- Section length according to local norms
- Gutter heights from 3.0m upwards according to crop requirements
- Cover: 4-sided glazing and/or polycarbonate (10mm and 16mm)
- Foundations: Insulated block walls, perimeter and internal posts bolted onto concrete dollies, posts bolted on strip foundation.

DRIVADAN wide span houses...when quality matters

Suitable also as service building

4-sided glazing as standard

Tailor made span

Polycarbonate sidewalls and glass roof top

Light and airy